

Short Professional Curriculum Vitae

Elian Hattinga van 't Sant

Education:

- 1984 M.A. and M.Phil. in History (Utrecht University, Netherlands)
- 2011 Post Graduate Diploma Applied Animal Behaviour (University College Ghent, Belgium)

Work experience:

- 2017 - now: Guest lecturer Applied Animal Behaviour Annorlunda
- 2015 - now: PhD researcher Utrecht University (on the history of the construct of 'dominance')
- 2008 - now: Free-lance science writer on dog behaviour, dog research, dog breeds and the history of ideas about dogs (Onze Hond, Hondenmanieren, Hondenwereld, Los Vast).
- 2013- 2019 Guest lecturer Applied Animal Behaviour: University College Ghent (2013-2017)
Martin Gaus Academie (2017-2019)
- 2010-2015: Behavioural counsellor (cats and dogs).
- 1989 -2013: Financial and Business Controller in Holland and Germany, Targetti Group.
- 1985-1988: Lecturer in Mediaeval History (Utrecht University, Netherlands)
- 1979-1984: Teaching Assistant (Utrecht University, Netherlands).

Publications:

Articles:

- Various scholarly publications in the field of history (since 1985)
- Over 200 articles on dog behaviour and research in Hondenmanieren, Onze Hond, Hondenwereld, Los Vast (since 2007)

Book:

Rudy De Meester & Elian Hattinga van 't Sant (2013). En toch is het een lieve hond! Gesprekken over het samenleven met een mentaal zieke hond. Nootdorp.